Pastor's Message

Welcome Back!

*Singing Welcome, Welcome to this place.
You're invited to come and know God's grace.
All are welcome, the love of God to share,
'Cause all of us are welcome here;
all are welcome in this place.
-Mark Miller, "Welcome"*

This is one of my most favorite "newer" church songs written by Mark Miller. I say "newer" because even though it was written in the year 2000 (almost 25 years ago!), it's located in the green Worship & Song music book that we don't have pew versions of in our sanctuary as it was published after The Faith We Sing (the small black book that feels very new itself to longtime Methodists). But the words of the song and the sentiment behind it are so crucial to our faith as Christians and people of God! I encourage you to listen to a recording of it here: Welcome - Words by Mark Miller and Laurie Zelman; Music by Mark Miller

As summer comes to an end and we get back into gear for the fall, welcome becomes an extra important thing for us to think about. How do we welcome people back from a season of rest/vacation/travel? How do we welcome people back who might have not come to worship in person with us for a long time but have decided to try again this fall? How do we welcome people who are completely new to our church? How do we welcome those of us who have been here all along? Everyone wants to feel welcomed and cared for and included. Mark Miller's words are a powerful reminder of how God ALWAYS welcomes us no matter how often we show up to church, how often we pray, or how often we are intentional about our relationship with God. It is a good reminder that as the church, the body of Christ, we are also called to embody a spirit of welcome for everyone.

Next week on September 8th we are hosting a Welcome Back Brunch Worship service that will be held in fellowship hall at 9:30am (our normal worship time). We will share a potluck meal together (feel free to bring a dish and/or just yourself!), sing songs together, pray together, and reflect on what it means to offer and receive welcome. We will welcome the choir back (yay!) as well as people who have been away this summer or maybe even longer. This is a great opportunity to offer words of love and welcome to everyone rather than saying something off putting like "wow haven't seen YOU in a while." I encourage you to think about how you might offer the welcome of God's love on that day. I hope to see many of you there so I can say "you are welcome in this place!"

Welcome back friends, it's a joy to be with you!
Pastor Annie

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Webinar: A Voice from the Other Side of the Wall: I Am a Palestinian Christian

The NEAC Committee of Christian Unity and Interreligious Relations (CUIR) is hosting an online conversation with Rev. Dr. Mitri Raheb at 11 am on Friday, Sept. 20. Despite Christians having lived in Palestine since the days of the Jesus movement, their voices are often unheard and ignored. This webinar aims to provide insights into the realities of life on the ground from a leading Palestinian pastor and theologian and to learn from his wisdom on Christian unity and interreligious relations for peace. We invite you to attend this webinar to understand the situation, struggles, and hope of Christians in Palestine and to discern God's calling for us regarding our siblings in Christ and neighbors.

Sunday School Starts September 15

We are looking forward to another fun year of Sunday school at St. James. Our curriculum throughout the year will be based on the children and youth lessons from Discipleship Ministries of the United Methodist Church. Occasionally we will use other curriculum that coordinates with the current worship series. For example we will do a 4 week series called "The Jesus Tour: Do Unto Others" from September 29-October 27.

We welcome children ages 3 and up. Online registration is on the church website www.stjames-umchurch.org or contact the church office.

Fall Book Study

"I Think You're Wrong (But I'm Listening): A Guide to Grace-Filled Political Conversations" by Sarah Stewart Holland and Beth Silvers.

We will start Wednesday September 25th and follow the below schedule...

all discussions will be on Wednesdays at 7pm via Zoom:

- 9/25: Read Chapters 1&2
- 10/2: Read Chapters 3&4
- 10/9: Read Chapters 5&6
- 10/16: Read Chapters 7&8
- 10/23: Read Chapters 9&10

More than ever, politics seem to be driven by discord. People sitting together in pews every Sunday feel like strangers and loved ones at the dinner table feel like enemies. Toxic political dialogue, hate-filled rants on social media, and agenda-driven news stories have become the new norm. But it doesn't have to be this way.

In I Think You're Wrong (But I'm Listening), two working moms from opposite ends of the political spectrum teach us that politics don't have to divide us. Instead, we can bring the same care and respect to policy discussions that we bring to the rest of our lives.

Sarah Stewart Holland and Beth Silvers, co-hosts of Pantsuit Politics, recently named an Apple Podcasts Show of the Year, give you all of the tools you need to:

- Respect the dignity of every person
- Recognize that issues are nuanced and can't be reduced to political talking points
- Listen in order to understand
- Lead with grace and patience

Join Sarah from the left and Beth from the right as they teach you that people from opposing political perspectives truly can have calm, grace-filled conversations with one another.

See you September 25th!

United We Sleep

September 27, 5pm – September 28, 8am at Nashua Community College

We live in a beautiful community, so we tend to forget that there is serious poverty here. We cannot imagine what it feels like not to have a safe, comfortable place to sleep at night. But every year, people in our community die while homeless. At least 300 kids in the Nashua School District are homeless.

Experience a night without “home” at United We Sleep. This event brings people together to discuss and become more aware about the issues of extreme poverty and homelessness. Come away with a better understanding of the hardships that the homeless go through. Through your participation and fundraising you are making the statement, “I care about my community”. Help increase awareness of a problem that won’t go away until we join together to solve it.

For more information visit <https://unitedwaynashua.org/event/united-we-sleep/> or contact United Way of Greater Nashua at info@unitedwaynashua.org or (603)882-4011.

HARVEST FAIR

Saturday, October 19, 2024      9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Get ready! The fair is around the corner. Have you finished your crafts? Did you try out some new recipes for baked goods? Have you done your fall cleaning for the yard sale? Have you saved all of your books and puzzles? What about your baskets for the Silent Auction? Don't worry, there's still time...but not much!

Similar to last year, we hope to have an indoor-outdoor fair. Baked Goods and Candy will be in the Wesley Room. The Silent Auction will be in the Fellowship Hall. Breakfast and Lunch will be in Fellowship Hall. Outside, weather permitting, we will have the Yard Sale and Books. Crafts, Jewelry, and Kid's Corner could be inside or outside. We do have a new feature – Merrimack Police and Fire will be on site with their cars and trucks for all to visit.

Starting on Sunday, September 8th, after church, we will be signing people up to work at the fair, to set up and break down the fair, to lend pop-up tents, to bake, to make candy, and to donate baskets and gift cards for the Silent Auction, and everything else we can think of.

Chairpersons:

- Yard Sale: Linda and Doug Wilson; Debbie and Jim Walter
- Crafts: Lisa Sanborn and Lucille Fisher
- Baked Goods: Carol Marrone and Lynne Snow
- Jewelry: Betty Ann Dudziak
- Silent Auction: Brenda DuLong and Lesley Fallu
- Breakfast: Susan Cooke
- Lunch: Cheryl and Richelle Barb

Chairpersons are still needed for Books and for Candy.

Collections: We are collecting NOW! Bring in everything but food as early as you can. Sundays after church is a great time. We have space in the Undercroft and in closets for crafts, books, puzzles, and yard sale item. Remember, we cannot take electronics, appliances, clothing or bedding. If you bring any large furniture donations, you need to be prepared to take them back if they don't sell.

The Silent Auction has been a very successful table for the past several years. Can you donate to this table? Gift cards, themed baskets, other new items are all welcomed. This is a great way to recycle those presents you have never opened. However, all items must be new or collectible.

Bake! Bake! Bake! Much of our profit will come from food. We will need muffins, candy, cookies, brownies, cakes, pies, breads, fudge, and more. Jellies, jams and relishes are always welcomed.

Questions or Suggestions: call or email Lesley Fallu (497-4060; fallu@comcast.net) or Brenda Dulong (493-5945; bsdulong@gmail.com). We would love to hear your new ideas. Thanks for your help. It's sure to be a great success!

NEAC video series examines Revised Social Principles

At the postponed 2020 General Conference held April 23-May 3, 2024, delegates approved the first overhaul of the denomination's Social Principles in nearly 50 years.

The Social Principles, contained in both the Book of Discipline and Book of Resolutions, are statements that reflect official United Methodist teachings on a wide range of topics. They are not church law but are intended to inform United Methodist witness on issues of the day with a biblical foundation.

The 2012 General Conference approved revising the Social Principles, setting in motion a process that involved input from people around the world, coordinated by the General Board of Church and Society. In addition to the language changes regarding human sexuality and inclusiveness, the Social Principles address the importance of advocating for human dignity and combating racism and other threats, caring for creation and the environment, standing against social ills, and supporting healthy community in all its forms, including economic, social and political.

www.neumc.org/news

The NEAC Commission on Religion and Race (CORR), Board of Church and Society, and Commission on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) have created this eight-part video series exploring the revised Social Principles with an invitation to reflect on and actively engage with these principles.
